VOLUME 2, ISSUE 8.

August 2007

Dear WRGN Supporters,

Exciting developments to report this month, include the association of the Thames Valley Dowzers and the House of Life Mystery School (based in Portsmouth) with the network as well as the establishment of links to the Einhorn Press based in the United States.

The group at Weymouth and Dorchester have moved to a new venue (The Trinity Centre Healing for Health) and the Centre of Awareness at Ashburton launch a new and improved web site (log on to www.awarenesscentre.btik.com for more details).

This August edition of the newsletter features the Flower of Life, an introduction to Shamanic Healing, the New Physics of Consciousness (a book review) an invitation to the House of Life Mystery School and an example of psychic art.

The on-line article archive has been expanded to include an article entitled 2012 and Beyond: A New Golden Age? Newly digitised lectures include the Greek Spirit by Dr. Howard Smith and Discovering Your Soul's Purpose by William Arkle.

The Flower of Life

The original flower of life can be found on several pillars in "the Osireon", the tomb of Osiris at Abydos in Egypt (shown below). If the Osireon is the oldest building in Egypt, the flower is older than any known writing or hieroglyphic works. To this day no one can explain who inscribed the image or why it was placed at the tomb, but it is possible that the original flower is incomplete because it is only the first layer of three.

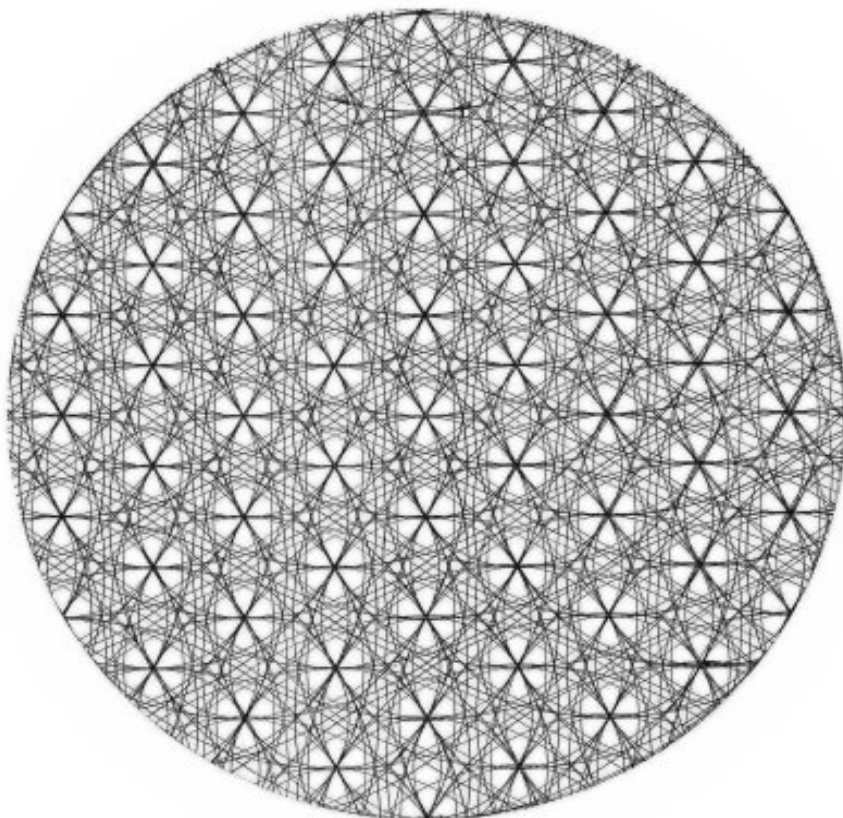

The complete flower has the other two layers, making it an inter-dimensional design tool, a portal or link back to another universal awareness or consciousness that we were once part of prior to this current materialistic age.

Focus on the multi dimensional image of the Flower of Life (shown opposite). Relax and let it slowly draw your eyes out of focus, observing it as one big totality. Remember, that we do not see with our eyes, we see through them, so let your mind focus on the image, (don't fight it) and you might find that the flower opens. The complete flower contains the tree, the fruit, the egg and the seed of life. The complete flower also contains the Metatron cube which holds all the platonic solids, not just the building blocks of life, but the very building blocks of creation itself!

Shamanic Healing - A Brief Introduction

by Sharon-White Elk Women

Shamanic healing in essence is similar to any other form of energetic or spiritual healing in so far as the ultimate aim is to help create a better 'whole' for the client. It is about bringing a balance to mind, body, spirit and emotions by tapping into the Universal energy and working responsibly with ancient wisdom, knowledge and guidance.

Traditionally most people associate Shamanic healing with the North American Indians and whilst they have used this form of healing for many centuries, Shamanism is practised in many other parts of the world, including Asia, Europe and Australasia. The techniques and traditions may vary slightly but the principles are the same.

A Shamanic Healing session could involve any of the following:

Soul retrieval – this is where you may have encountered a partial soul loss, through perhaps a traumatic event such as a death of a loved one, a physical trauma such as an operation, the break up of deep emotional relationship, or major life changes, along with a whole host of other situations that could have caused you to 'lose' part of yourself. You will recognise if this is what you need as you will feel 'life has never been the same since.'

A Shamanic Healer will most likely use a variety of tools for the healing 'ceremony'. This may include harnessing the power of the drum, rattle, feathers, stones, crystals, plants or the elements and directions for example. You will be seated or laying down and fully clothed whilst the healer works around you.

Divination/Reading – the healer will tune in to you and your energy field and be able to read and guide you, thus being able to communicate to you issues that have perhaps been buried deep within. This can then help you to realise the root of a problem and help and guide you on your path and be helpful to your own healing process.

Journeying – This can be a guided or unguided visual form of meditation. A Shamanic Healer will most likely drum around you and guide you through a journey. This can be a powerful healing experience, where you will no doubt feel, hear and see many things whilst it is going on around you. This can really help you to 'let go' of unwanted thoughts or feelings and help bring clarity, guidance and stability on all levels of being.

Power Objects – The healer may also call upon the Spirit of an animal, plant or crystal for example and imbue this energy into something for you to take away from the session as a 'power object' for your continued healing process. It is most likely that whilst shamanic healing takes place you will have seen or felt this energy anyway and know how it can help you.

Shamanic healing can reveal and help you to deal with a lot of issues, it can be a very deep, powerful and transformative form of healing, so do find someone that has been practising for some time and knows how to make your experience a positive and wonderful one.

House of Life Mystery School
www.thehouseoflife.co.uk

An Invitation from the House of Life.

The House of Life is a contemporary Mystery School rooted in the Ancient Egyptian tradition of Sacred Science. This unifying and practical philosophy lay at the spiritual heart of the Egyptian achievement. This time of radical transition and fundamental change offers great opportunity; indeed there is an imperative to embrace a new paradigm, our schismatic philosophy has run its course. Although the current spiritual renaissance offers innumerable experiences, the Mystery School still holds a unique place. The Mystery School employs a holistic modus operandi to integrate intellect, intuition and imagination and awakens through an initiatory process which seeds the appearance of new values, aspirations, capabilities and talents so that renewal and rebirth are not metaphoric but actual. The House of Life provides a Path through the Labyrinth of Being and Becoming. Founder of the House of Life Naomi Ozaniec has been involved with the Mysteries for over 30 years. She is the author of many books including The Aquarian Qabalah which provides a complete Mystery School curriculum. Naomi was the Oracular Voice of Isis at the World Parliament of Religions and she is studying for an M.A. in Western Esotericism at Exeter University.

Book Review - the New Physics of Consciousness by David Ash.

This book is a true David and Goliath story. In a revolutionary approach to science David makes a deadly challenge to a major pillar of quantum theory. Albert Einstein described this pillar as "...a real witches calculus...most ingenious, and adequately protected by its great complexity against being proved wrong." This book introduces a new paradigm which integrates science and religion. With an easy rewrite of physics there is a profound philosophy. Clear analogies and simple diagrams make the science understandable and enthralling. A theory for everything emerges which is simple and brilliant! Supernova explosions in distant galaxies provide proof for the theory. Log on to www.kimaglobal.co.za for further information

A-Z of the Esoteric Being.

Djinn (or Jinnee) – The powers of the psyche which at first appear dark and menacing because unconscious; but are transformed when brought under conscious control.

Dragon - The life force or mother complex. The essence of nature that manifests itself in the four elements; the underlying invisible force that flies, devours and creates.
