

Wessex Research Group Network Newsletter

VOLUME 2, ISSUE 6.

June 2007

Dear WRGN Supporters,

A June newsletter that features details of a new course (Holistic Palliative Care), a new group (Natures Way), reviews of two books (The Revolution of 2012 and Courageous Souls: Do We Plan Our Life Challenges Before Birth?), a summary of the 2007 edition of the Avalon Rising magazine and event listings for the month ahead when we welcome the arrival of Dan Winter from the USA.

Interest in the network continues to grow and it is wonderful to report the involvement of the Centre of Mindfulness at the University of Wales, Bangor, Natures Way (Roadwater, Exmoor) and a shamanic healing group (Watchet, Somerset)

The WRGNetwork web site has been updated to include a page for book reviews (located within the library resources section) and the latest additions to the digitised audio archives are Edgar Cayce's Story of Man by John Walsh and the Cathar's and the Destruction of Christian Mysticism by John Lloyd. Uniting with the Higher Self by Sir George Trevelyan is the latest addition to the article archive.

In his lectures Sir George often referred to an impending turnaround in the consciousness of humankind of the greatest magnitude. Recently received messages of support from around the world suggest that the work of the WRGNetwork might be contributing to this idea.

Holistic Palliative Care.

Starting this June, the Hospice of the Heart are launching a series of courses at venues throughout the UK for caring professionals, aimed at understanding and providing holistic palliative care.

Potentially of interest to care workers, therapists and other professionals involved in working with dying patients, the courses cover aspects of caring such as befriending (both patient's and their relatives), communication skills, relaxation, therapeutic touch, nutrition and complementary therapies.

Hospice founder, Felicity Warner explains: "Palliative care is increasingly being offered by private agencies and care homes to clients who are requesting to die at home rather than in hospital. The holistic side of palliative care is an area new too many but its effects can make such a comforting and re-assuring difference to those in the final days of life and also to their relatives."

One of the aims of the Hospice of the Heart is to help people to achieve a Good Death by integrating expert medical knowledge with the best possible holistic care. For more information contact Felicity Warner email felicity.warner@btinternet.com

Nature's Way.

Nature's Way hosts a monthly series of mind, body and spirit themed events at the Exmoor village of Roadwater in West Somerset. It is run by practicing hedgewitch Carolyn Clare Townsend and her husband Edward.

Now in its second year talks have included subjects that include Native American spirituality, Astrology, Palmistry, Witchcraft, Crystal therapy, Shamanism and Reiki.

"When we moved to Exmoor I became Regional Coordinator for the Pagan Federation, and felt that there was a need for a forum, where like-minded souls could meet. Nature's Way has opened a door for many folk who had been searching for others to share their path" explained Carrolynn.

"It has been brilliant to hear comments such as: 'I have felt very isolated and despaired at not finding others to share my thoughts, ideas and spirituality. Now I can meet such people'. All are welcome and all we ask is for an open and enquiring mind."

For more details call Carolyn on 01984 640147.

A-Z of Esoteric Man.

Asoma – The non material elements in man comprising all the intangible factors that constitute the non-physical self and contribute to his existence, identity and personality during his life, and, the belief in continued existence after death.

Biorhythm – The cyclic periodicities of recurrent phases of mood and behaviour that are observed in living organisms. The rhythmic flow of energy and activity is found everywhere in nature, from the circling of the heavenly bodies, the movement of the sun, the waxing and waning of the moon, the seasons and the weather, to the cyclic biological changes in animals and men.

Courageous Souls: Do We Plan Our Life Challenges Before Birth?

By Robert Schwartz

Robert explores the premise that we are all eternal souls who plan our lives, including our greatest challenges, before we're born for purposes of spiritual growth.

The book contains ten stories of people who planned physical illness, having handicapped children, deafness, blindness, drug addiction, alcoholism, losing a loved one, and severe accidents.

The information about their pre-birth plans was obtained by four gifted mediums and channels, including one who has the ability both to see and to hear the dialogue we have with one another before we're born. The book contains the actual conversations people had with their future parents, children, spouses, friends, and other loved ones when they planned their lives together.

For readers, suffering that once seemed purposeless becomes imbued with deep meaning. Wisdom may be acquired in a more conscious manner; feelings of anger, guilt, blame, and victimization are replaced by acceptance, forgiveness, gratitude, and peace.

A free PDF with a large sample of the book is available on the About the Book page at www.CourageousSouls.com. The book may be ordered from info@courageoussouls.com. Robert Schwartz may be reached at author@courageoussouls.com.

The Revolution of 2012: Volume 1 the Preparation.

By Andrew Smith

The book is a natural sequel to the various research studies of the ancient mysteries involving the Mayan predictions for the Winter Solstice 2012. "The Revolution of 2012" provides a briefing on the current mysteries surrounding the run-up to 2012 - directly from the Ascended Masters working on the implementation of the Divine Plan for the Earth's evolution through this period.

"The Preparation" is the first volume of three. It describes the energetic changes already taking place on Earth and their effects on many aspects of human life. The reader is invited to align with these profound changes utilising the expanded consciousness available through the Heart Centre, the natural gateway of connection to the Spiritual realms of Higher Consciousness. Appropriate changes in all forms of life expression can be progressively achieved as this alignment becomes a living reality for each person making this choice. The Revolution of 2012 will be in three volumes Vol 1 The Preparation Vol 2 The Challenge Vol 3 Taking Action.

Avalon Rising Magazine.

Due for launching at the 'Sunrise Celebration' festival on 31st May, the magazine will feature an exclusive article by American author Dan Winter about DNA and the fractal universe, focusing on his cutting-edge research into the nature of blood and it's relationship to the 'Grail'. Other articles include Louis Standen's research into the Glastonbury Zodiac and how it encodes astronomical knowledge related to 2012 and 'galactic superwaves'. Local author and Druid, Merlin, will be giving an outline of his modern Druid Tree Calendar, looking at how the ancients used a 13 moon system and how it can be used by the modern thinker. Giles Bryant, who has just published 'Sacred Sites, Sacred Songs', will be writing about the circle of perpetual choirs and how the ancients used to 'Enchant the Landscape', as originally discussed by earth mysteries pioneer John Michell in his early research. Michell has provided a piece about the geometry of the 'New Jerusalem'. There are also articles from Hugh Newman, Shaun Kirwan, Celia Gunn and the Antiquarian Society.

For further information about the magazine or the Sunrise Celebration Festival log on to www.avalonrising.co.uk or email events@avalonrising.co.uk.
