VOLUME 4, ISSUE 3.

March 2009

Interest in the Wessex Research Group Network increased significantly during the first two months of 2009, with visits to the web site increasing by 40% and the network attracting interest from the media.

The month of March also promises to be busy. In addition to a full programme of interesting events, the Weymouth & Dorchester group are now located at a new venue, the Upwey and Broadway Memorial Hall at Upwey, Dorset (contact Roma Harding for details by emailing spiraloftranquility.roma@virgin.net)

The latest addition to the on-line audio lecture is 'Beyond Channelling and into the New World' by Stanley Messenger with 'Can we have our Red Sun Back Please?' by Gary Gilligan the latest addition to the on-line article archive.

Ideas of Extended Consciousness: The Elemental Kingdoms by Susan Booker

The existence of Elemental or Devic kingdoms (and I mean everything; the elemental, mineral, animal, vegetable, fire, water....) as living, dynamic, sensate expressions of consciousness, was very much a part of thinking in the classical world and also of medieval scholars such as Paracelsus.

The idea of extended worlds of consciousness beyond the world of man although not central to our current evidence driven thinking, has in recent times re-entered the modern psyche. Compared to 50 years ago, there is a greater awareness and passion for the welfare and rights of the animal kingdom as well as a better appreciation of the importance of the environment.

Humanity and the elemental worlds are now in a state of evolutionary transition and it is very important that both evolutions take place together, in synchronicity. It would not be appropriate for mankind to take a quantum leap forward without the elemental world. If the elemental kingdoms were to remain at the old level of energetic vibration there would be total confusion, with each world losing touch with the other, when they need to come together.

You might think that mankind takes little notice of the other kingdoms still having a tendency to readily abuse the planet. Despite this the relationship is closer than you might expect and there are agencies hard at work trying to maintain the synchronicity of transition. We can assist in this process by nourishing an awareness of the environment and this is not just a one way action, because the elemental world is also reaching out to humanity.

Above: A Nature Spirit. Source Psychic Art archive of the Wessex Research Group.

It has not always been possible to communicate with the elemental kingdoms because they and humanity were on divergent paths. During past times many facets of the elemental kingdoms were uninterested indeed wary of man's activities. This is no longer the case and they are choosing to becoming involved in the process of transition. Elementals recognise the magnitude of the impending change, aware of the energy changes in their own spheres and also within the world of man. They understand that this is not only the time for the true birthing of humanity, rising out of being a powerful physical consciousness to a psychic level, but also an opportunity for themselves to evolve.

If we take the trouble to reach out to these elemental energies we might be pleasantly surprised at the response. All that is needed is to form a conscious intent that one wishes to attune and empathise with these energies. Endeavour to spare a thought or two during the course of your human day and form a communion with not just the Earth, animal and all the other energies that inhabit the mineral kingdom. Elves, Pixies and Gnomes, are like us and also need to become all embracing, because planetary transition will result in every aspect of consciousness (human or otherwise) knowing that it is part of a greater whole.

MARK-AGE: Love in Action for the New Age

Mark-Age is a non-profit spiritual / educational organisation, founded and based in the United States of America in 1960.

It's teachings are based on the inter-dimensional communications of Nada-Yolanda (1925-2005) and its primary purpose is to externalize on Earth the Hierarchal Board (spiritual government of our solar system) in preparation for the Second Coming in its dual meaning: the second coming of each one's I Am Self, expressed through the mortal personality; and the Second Coming of Sananda / Jesus the Christ, Prince of Earth, in his resurrected, etheric, light body in the beginning decades of the new millennium.

We are in the long-prophesied Latter Days, a period of planetary cleansing when the signs or marks of the age point to a new spiritual dimension of love, peace and brotherhood to come. This is the harvest time, the transition cycle between the ending of the old, materialistic age and the New Age of Aquarius, now dawning.

Mark-Age has been commissioned by the Hierarchal Board to implant a prototype of spiritual government on Earth, the I Am Nation. The I Am Nation is not a political government, but is a spiritual congregation of all souls who seek to serve God, first and foremost, and the I Am Selves of all people on Earth. Regardless of race, religion, gender, age, nationality or spiritual-group affiliation, everyone is a potential I Am Nation citizen.

"When we have spiritual Grace- when we add to our disposition the ability to grant things freely to others with goodwill, mercy, decency and propriety – spirit will multiply our supply, for we have proved ourselves to be a worthy supervisor and a pure vessel through which our Father-Mother can work" – Upon timeless cosmic principles we proceed with spiritual grace.

Book Review- Left in the Dark: the biological origins of the fall from grace by Graham Gynn and Tony Wright

This is a book that presents the most radical reinterpretation of existing evidence from many disciplines (evolution, ecology, neurology, psychology and anthropology) to finally make sense of the ancient 'Ages of Mankind' traditions.

These universal traditions were once the only version of history we had. They describe the onset and progression of a neurodegenerative condition that really has left us in the dark. Often considered no more than the imaginings of a primitive mind and easy to dismiss as mere myths, they are in fact a more accurate natural history of humankind than modern science has thus far recognised.

Outlined is the evidence for the origin and nature of a condition that eventually left us blind to its existence. What can be done to treat the condition and prevent its occurrence? While this may seem a challenging problem, the solution promises amongst other things the restoration of phenomenal abilities, including a greatly enhanced state of mind. For further information about the book log on to <http://leftinthedark.org.uk>
