VOLUME 5, ISSUE 3.

March 2010

March 2010 and we welcome the Pierian Centre located in Bristol www.pierian-centre.com to the Wessex Network.

The latest addition to the on-line digital lecture archive is "The Enlightened Body: Unlocking its Secrets through Light and Touch Therapies" by John Wilks. The Urge to Purge by Christian Hummel is now posted to the on-line article archive with "Our Relationship with Nature" and the "Planet of Love" the newest broadcasts in the video archive www.wessexresearchgroup.org/video.html

Open To What Comes by Milo de Venus

It was September 2005, a memorial service held near Sherborne in Dorset, and I remember the day well. From the pulpit the minister declared "Open to What Comes." He repeated the words on several occasions throughout the service, but at the time I paid little if any attention to them. Five years later the words have somehow returned to my mind and I find myself thinking about their significance.

Like children in a nursery we live out the dramas of our earthly lives largely oblivious to the existence of a wider reality; one where as cosmic beings we exist within a limitless ocean of thought and consciousness. Children cannot stay in the nursery forever and at some point must leave to engage with a wider world view. That time has arrived for humanity. As individuals and as a human collective of consciousness, we must begin to think in terms of a bigger picture.

The prospect of change can be daunting, whether we accept it or not. Change is however coming because the prevailing matrix of energy that governs our earthly existence is changing. Lighter energies that might be described as unconditional love are permeating through every aspect of consciousness, irrespective of whether it exists in spiritual, mineral, animal or vegetable form.

Sir George Trevelyan called these energies the Christ impulse. The mission of the Christ anchored this energy, the impulse of love on Earth, implanting it into the consciousness of humanity at its time of need. For over 2000 years the impulse has been with us, waiting for events to unfold so that we might raise our awareness and through our free will, enter a new age and truly anchor the love impulse here on Earth.

We may or may not realise it, but day by day we are all becoming more sensitive to energy. As we become more sensitive, our sense of reality also begins to shift, shifting from a material perspective of existence to the realisation that everything is energy, everything is consciousness.

Above: The Land of Peace and Love

As we become more sensitive to energy we will also realise that life on the Earthly plane exists within a cacophony of energetic vibration, some positive and some negative. During the course of each day we encounter a range of emotions and energies from other people. Not just people, but institutions, even our technology all have an energetic resonance which in some way or other affects us. Instinctively we often reflect back that energy which is projected towards us, but whatever is thrown our way we must try to stay centred and to respond by projecting light and loving energy; our strength coming from aligning ourselves with the impulse of love and through fostering peace with our inner self. Our challenge in anchoring the new energies is to accentuate the positive, the higher vibrations of love, peace, respect and service to others.

Undoubtedly this will be for many of us, a constant process of realignment, slipping between the new and old vibrations. When we feel the presence of the higher impulses, we must try and foster the union, attempting to stay connected for as long as possible. Bringing ourselves in to balance is crucial. Make time each day to create moments of inner peace, moments when you can nourish that divine spark. At the end of each day review the events that took place, considering if you managed to maintain that balanced perspective in response to different situations.

The nursery door is now ajar and we are getting glimpses of a new reality. It is one of endless possibilities, one without limitation and boundary, and it falls to us, this generation currently incarnate on Earth, to step across the threshold, taking a quantum leap in consciousness as we step. Together we can bring Heaven to Earth for we can achieve anything when we aspire to resonate with the energy of unconditional love.

UFO Matrix

by Malcolm Robinson

UFO Matrix is a new newsstand magazine that is set to restore the vacuum left by the demise of UFO Magazine and other such British publications. This new UFO magazine is a fantastic opportunity for UFOlogists the world over to present their findings, thoughts and case files, which will be seen by thousands across the U.K. and the rest of the world. We will gladly consider any articles that you have written on UFOs (or photographs). Articles should solely be on UFOs and consist of no more than 4 A4 pages and not be less than two and a half pages. All submissions should be accompanied by a postal address. Email Malcolm Robinson at malckyspi@yahoo.com for more information about the new publication.

Book Review: Space Clearing Kit: Working with Nature to Enhance the Energies of Your Home

by Christian Hummel

The cover of this richly-illustrated, spiral-bound book says it all: an apron-clad fairy god(dess) mother sprinkles brightness and order over an animated house and its environs. You can almost see the house smile. The author's message, of course, is that you can work with nature to energetically clear your home and property yourself. Its pages are packed with information, from the practical to the esoteric, weaving a wide array of subjects and sources into a rich tapestry of knowledge and wisdom. Open any page and find food for thought? and action. A fascinating book in which the author covers space clearing from A to Z, illuminating the personal as well as the planetary benefits of living with nature. It's a dowser's delight. For further information about the book and Christian's forthcoming workshop in Cork log on to <http://earthtransitions.com>

Book Review: The Genesis of Freemasonry

by David Harrison

This book is a revealing and thoroughly enjoyable journey through the intricate history of English Freemasonry. Historian Dr. David Harrison reconstructs the hidden history of the movement, tracing its roots through a mixture of medieval guild societies, alchemy and necromancy. He examines the earliest known Freemasons and their obsessions with Solomon's Temple, alchemy, and prophecy, to the formation of the Grand Lodge in London, which in turn led to rebellions within the Craft throughout England. Harrison also analyses the role of French immigrant, Dr Jean Theophilus Desaguliers in the development of English Freemasonry, focusing on his involvement with the formation of the mysterious modern Masonic ritual. Freemasons and more general readers will find much of interest in this fascinating exploration of the very beginnings of Freemasonry, still one of the most mysterious brotherhoods in the world. For further information about the book log on to <http://www.lewisimasonic.com> or email David at dharrison1968@yahoo.co.uk

Meditational Messages from the Mountain of Scrolls
