

Wessex Research Group Network Newsletter

VOLUME 7, ISSUE 9.

September 2012

September 2012 and we welcome the Aquarian Age Community who are based in the UN building in New York www.aquaac.org and Shamanka a unique School for Women's Shamanism www.shamanka.com (Dorset based) to the Wessex network.

The positive living network have launched a new web site www.positivelivinggroups.org.uk. The Shaftesbury PLG have moved to a new venue (the Friends Meeting House in Shaftesbury), the Lymington PLG has changed from a schedule of weekly meetings to bi-monthly and Wincanton PLG from weekly to monthly.

Imagine By Rachel Turner

Whilst watching the closing ceremony of the London Olympic Games the song that most caught my attention was "Imagine" by John Lennon.

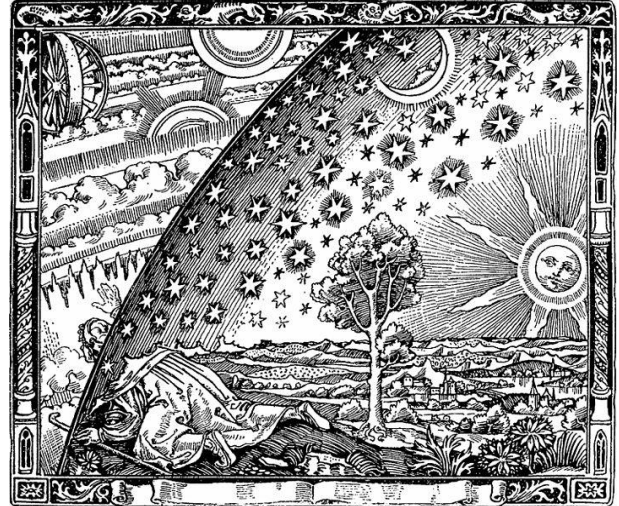

Music and the arts have long been vehicles for reminding us that we are spiritual beings (albeit bound in physical bodies) and there have been periods within human history (e.g. the renaissance) when humanity has been infused with ideas through the arts and through science.

The 1960's was another such time. The Earth was infused with energy / ideas and for me personally, it was through the music. As a youngster I couldn't see the esoteric role of popular music which I now realise was a mechanism for raising the energetic vibration on planet Earth. The Beatles were just one of many groups/artists that helped in this respect. In going to India they also bought the ideas held within the Eastern Mystic tradition back to the attention of people in the West.

The London Olympic Games managed to bring people together from across the world and the song "Imagine" seemed very appropriate in that respect, as it suggests the ideas of "all the people, sharing all the world" and the "world living/being as one".

Such lyrics certainly resonate with Aquarian themes. What if the song were more than just a piece of popular music; something inspired by spirit to provide us with an insight into what is now the very near future, a glimpse of life on the ascended Earth?

Interconnectivity, cosmic reconnection, equality, and compassion are all hallmarks of the incoming Aquarian age, but I would like to suggest that the song goes further, providing us with an insight into the true depth of change and the journey that we will all have to make as individuals in order to ascend with our home planet.

The first verse presents a number of interesting ideas (for example no heaven or hell). It also suggests that the concept of time itself is about to change. The line "Imagine all the people living for today" is in tune with the idea that on the ascended Earth we will live in the moment, the constraints of third dimensional time no longer appropriate. In addition to no heaven or Hell there is also the idea of no past or future.

Subsequent verses invite us to imagine a world where there are no countries, no possessions, no religion, no greed or hunger and nothing to kill or die for. If we are now on the cusp of great change, how far are we from committing too or even thinking about such lofty aspirations? Events like the Olympic Games bring humanity together but how can we build on such occasions so that we might move forward in our individual and human world view thinking?

We already see the tug of war between the new and the old in the way in which our fiscal systems are breaking down. Could it be that the idea of money is no longer appropriate? I have yet to hear a politician suggest that it is time for humanity to embrace the idea of a world without money, to move beyond greed and the monopolisation of resources in favour of a higher way.

Imagine what we could really achieve if we were prepared to let go of what we already know and embrace everything through love respect and compassion. Then the world might be as one with people living fulfilled lives in peace. It's not an impossible dream, remember there was a time when we thought the Earth was flat; Imagine that!

What is Sufi?

By Andrew G

Sufi is an Arabic word that has two meanings. One is the wool of sheep and two, purify. This refers to the purifying of the soul, the psyche, the emotions and the body. As my teacher, world renowned Sufi Master, Adnan Sarhan would suggest, we begin to dissolve the negative-self, the ego. When all is purified, we become better and more enlightened human beings.

What once appeared to be a problem often isn't a problem any more. We perceive our circumstances through clearer and different lenses. Former participants have expressed they feel brighter, more joyous and more one and at peace with the world. To quote from Sufi philosophy, 'we travel through the veils'.....that obscures true vision, true reality

Sitting on yoga mats, we might typically do a series of gentle stretch and breathing exercises and listen to the hypnotic and transformational sounds induced by drumming. We dance with silk veils, whirl, like whirling dervishes and do powerful voice chakra sounding meditations. The aim is to take us away from all the distractions of our lives 'out there', in order to connect 'in there'-our true selves-our Soul. ## Book Review. Ascension and the Fifth Dimensional Network

By Andrew Smith and Keith Laidler

This is a book about taking right action to address the extraordinary changes in which humanity is already involved and experiencing as 2012 unfolds. Content originates from transmissions by a number of ascended spiritual masters who wish to ensure that humanity understands the world transitions that are imminent and the strides that we are expected to take.

Part One of this book sets out clearly the amazing opportunity available to ascend to the 5D New Earth as a full participant. Part Two describes the well thought out process of joining the Fifth Dimensional Network (Dnet) and engaging with the 24/7 accelerated Spiritual growth to Fifth Dimensional Consciousness.

This work is strongly recommended for those who actually want to take effective action to move forwards (and upwards) on their Spiritual path.
