A Message from Metatron

By Shirley Laflin

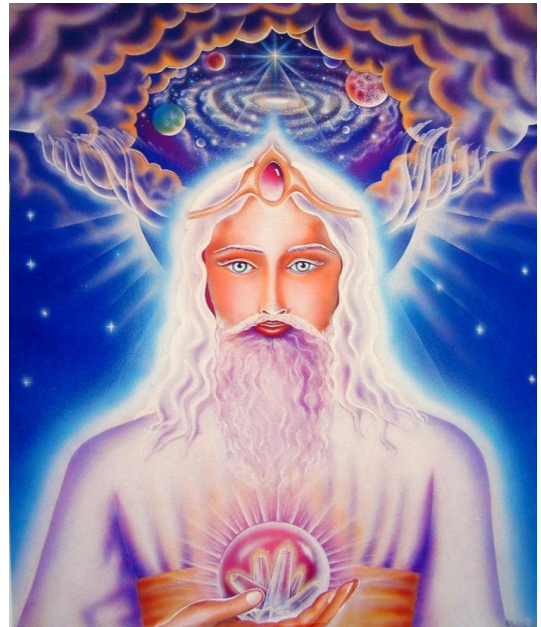

You will all be aware that great transformations are going on within your world at this time. We have toiled for many centuries to bring you all safely to this point and nothing is so important as to deliver you safely to the end point. To do this your love, light, help and cooperation is vitally needed.

We have no wish to alarm you as we will be with you at all times guarding and guiding you. You can be of the greatest service by remaining grounded and anchored in the knowledge that you are all children of God who have taken on the role of leading others into the light, and this is by your own very loving and humble examples.

You will be at the head of the queue, (and much to our joy that queue is becoming ever larger by the day) ready to show others how life is to change and to be that change yourselves. Much new knowledge, technology and machinery will be introduced, scientific practices will change out of all recognition and governance will change to suit the people and not the corrupt few. Large institutions such as the police force, NHS, banks and many financial and other corporations will be forced to change the way they operate and their manner of trading. All must become fair and transparent and those who are owed money from past illegal or other unjust dealings will find their money is returned to them in a form which will benefit them.

Alongside these innovations knowledge of your true history will gradually find its way into your media and staunch bastions of education and science. The latter will have difficulty in accepting these new concepts because it will, in many cases, completely destroy the ideas and theories that have been taught in some instances for many centuries. The ground will be swept from under their feet and there will be nothing left to stand on as they see it.

This alone has the ability to cause much chaos, havoc and instability, however the predominant emotion will be one of anger and disbelief, and much of the new information will be torn to shreds by those that wish the world to remain as they know it. In time even these people will be forced to change their outmoded ideas as the new technology and science will bring forward such innovation they will be amazed and awed by it all.

Above: A depiction of Metatron often cited as Enoch (ancestor of Noah) transformed into an Angel.

In other areas the economy will prosper and businesses will flourish and people will be given much help to take advantage of the new concepts in technology and other areas. A new form of commercialism will gradually take hold allowing both teenagers and adults to find the education and jobs which are right for their talents and skills. Just as importantly it will become much easier to enter their chosen educational route or profession without debt or massive competition for places as is the case now.

These are just a few of the many amazing changes which are due to take place and in common with almost any form of change, the old systems need to be allowed to fall into chaos before they can begin to start building up new ways of being and form a loving and productive equilibrium again.

This is the point where all you beautiful and loving light workers can lead the way. Your help will desperately be needed to reassure your families, colleagues, friends and others that the world is not going through an apocalypse from which nobody will emerge. Rather it is a necessary form of change which we all have to experience before we can all begin to live in the true light of love, faith, grace and an abundance of everything we have ever needed or wished for.

All the skills and experience you have built up in your dealings with people will need to come to the fore.

Those with any kind of healing or talking skills will find themselves in great demand whether it be in an office, school, institution or with family or friends. You will be in the best position to reassure people that they will come to no harm, that calmness, love and patience, rather than rage and protestation in any form will be the best way forward. You will also be in the best position to give any healing that is needed, or to provide the information that will help people to feel confident about their position and role in the future of our wonderful and emerging new world.

We are SO very grateful to you all for your unremitting patience for all the situations, health problems, relationship break ups, career frustrations, communication break downs and much else you have all suffered in stoic ways. It has been a long and grinding wait for many, but rest assured there is a life of such love, health, abundance and light ahead of you, you will soon forget all that has been to bask in the glory of THE ONE.

We your very grateful and humble servants send you much divine love. Metatron and the Host of Heaven

Avebury a Gateway to another Dimension?

By George Essence

It is a strange fact that the latitude of Avebury is exactly 1/7th of the earth but it does fit a musical interpretation according to the philosophy of the Neolithic culture.

You can accept that a torus, a hollow ring like a bicycle inner tube could have numbers painted on it on it like a clock. 12 hours is a journey right round, and 7 hours is just over half way round. The zodiac symbol for Taurus the Bull is a combination of these two images.

If you make twelve 7 hour journeys you cover exactly the same ground as seven twelve hour journeys. So lets make twelve 7 hour journeys but wind around the tube once while you do each of these journeys. You have just made a model of the zodiac that existed in the minds of the Stone Age philosophers.

Every start/stop point of your twelve journeys is a zodiac house. Now think of each zodiac house as a musical note. Your 7 hour journey is musically a perfect fifth and all twelve journeys makes "the spiral of fifths".

Lastly, imagine that we, living in Time, are in fact travelling round the zodiac taking 26000 years to get round once and that this zodiac circle is metaphorically the clock face on the bicycle tube.

At the very instant that we live in, (NOW), cut round this tube and you cut through the paths of just 7 of your previous "journeys". Metaphorically the first, your starting point, is at the start of Aquarius 2014, March at a precise date / time which will be on the Equator at the instant of the equinox, and the second will be at Avebury. By a way of a continuation of this reasoning Avebury must be a Gateway into Time into the "4th dimension" and was so used by priests when Avebury was new.

If you have got this far you may be saying is there any justification for this theory? If so, yes!

Take away the cycle tyre, dissolve it, but leave the journey which is now a 7 coil spiral, or, stretched out, a 7 coil snake. Go back to the tyre, but make new journeys.

This time make 5 hour journeys, but Anticlockwise you must make twelve, and you will visit all the same start/stops in the same order as the first, 7 hour journeys.

You have this time used the "perfect 4th" in music [one corroboration of the music theory]. Dissolve the tyre again, and you have left over a 5 coil anticlockwise spiral or snake. You find these exact same spirals at Newgrange, say sometimes together.

In maths, the 7 hour journeys are made by the fraction 3/2 and the 5 hour journeys by 4/3. Using the Megalithic Yard research done by Alexander Thom, it is possible to state that these fractions and others really belong to music. No other fractions are found in the surveys of Avebury, Stonehenge, Woodhenge other Neolithic sites, all the First Dynasty pyramids in Egypt and so on. Snakes and spirals are found everywhere and if you count the coils you find 7, 5, 3.5, 2.5. I believe that it's possible to deduce a lot of information from these, using music theory, which itself might give us clues about exploring interdimensionality. For further information about George's research email geo.essence@hotmail.co.uk
